WORKSHOP Part 1 Tuesday 17 November, 9.30 – 10.30am

Online workshop introducing Now / Next Boards, Weekly Visual Timetables and Personal Planners. Training will also be given to ensure the maximum benefit from using each board, which in turn will improve communication and help bring structure to daily routines.

Following WORKSHOP Part 1, a board of your choice from the three demonstrated, will be delivered to your home address.

WORKSHOP Part 2 Tuesday 15th December, 9.30 – 10.30am

Follow up online workshop to give further input and ensure maximum benefit is gained from using the boards.

Workshops are led by Neale Hayward-Shott, founder of OurBoards CIC and father of an adult with learning disabilities.

More information and registration is available on Eventbrite
